Excursions & Activities

You will always be guaranteed to visit some of the most iconic and memorable locations in the UK. Alongside we have an extensive list of optional excursions to choose from. We are very proud of our on-site activities, designed to maximise your fun whilst in the UK. The on-site programme has a range of choices available, from talent shows and sports competitions to movie nights and treasure hunts.

Safeguarding & Child Protection

British corner and their partners appreciate the concerns parents may have about sending their children away. Rest assured, the agency and their partners offer extensive tuition and extra-curricular activities. Safety and the welfare of the students in our care is a priority at all our camps and we make sure that students have a great time in a safe environment. We maintain high standards of health and safety by applying strict management standards developed in line with legislation and good practice. All camps and activities have been risk assessed. International young learners are well supervised during their stay. All staff have been through a strict selection process, trained in safeguarding, welfare and Prevent Duty and hold a recent enhanced level DBS (criminal background check) certificate. Only passionate, caring and dedicated staff are accepted to work with us.

Our courses

We believe that the learning experience should be directly connected to the places our students visit and the people they meet. Our engaging syllabus is a free-flowing set of modules which are based around topics and themes connected with British culture and places the students visit during their stay. Classes are lively and interactive making lots of use of digital resources, the internet and authentic materials. Students deliver a presentation at the end of each course showcasing their improved language skills and cultural understanding. All our teachers are qualified (CELTA or equivalent) to teach English as a foreign language. are suitable to work with under 18s, trained in safeguarding, welfare and Prevent Duty and hold a recent enhanced level DBS certificate.

Our modern Wembley Centre provides easy access to the city centre, it only takes 20 minutes on the underground to reach the heart of London. The classes are held in the College of North West London, only 3 minutes walk from our brand new, premium accommodation with single ensuite rooms, which is on the doorstep of the world famous Wembley Stadium.
